Craig family legacy in law enforcement

By Karen Hyden, Reporter

Pendleton County Deputy Sheriff Hunter Craig has followed in his father's footsteps in making a career of law enforcement. His father, Pendleton County Fish and Wildlife Officer Mickey Craig, has spent the past 34 years with the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife and is due to retire July 31. Thirty-one of those years he has been working in Pendleton County.

Prior to working for the sheriff's office, Hunter was employed with the Campbell County Detention Center for two years. Shortly after beginning there, he began to consider a job in law enforcement and spoke to his father about the possibility. "When I told Dad I wanted to work in law enforcement, he told me to go to every police department and see what opened up. That was within the first six weeks of my working there and it took me two years to get a job."

"I walked in the sheriff's office and talked to Paul Vater. He said they'd just hired Alex Biddle and they weren't hiring."

When an opening did come up, Paul called Mickey and asked if he thought Hunter would be interested. Mickey told them to call Hunter and ask him.

Hunter realizes being Mickey Craig's son helped him get the job with the sheriff's office and he has no problem with that at all. "I'm proud to say my father helped me get hired on. He has a legacy in law enforcement in this community. Hopefully I can pass that legacy onto someone, maybe my children if I have them someday."

One of the comments Paul Vater made when the sheriff's office was considering hiring Hunter was in reference to his father. Paul said if Hunter was anything like Mickey they needed him. He said he was a grinder and had always worked hard.

Hunter was hired on with the sheriff's office on February 14, 2011, at the age of 24 years. "I haven't even scratched the surface yet," admits Hunter, comparing his time in the field to that of his father's. "I haven't seen the results of my work like Dad has."

Mickey has been a sergeant for over five years and was one of the major contributors in stocking Kentucky with wild turkey, deer and elk back in the 1980s. He's also been involved in countless mussel-poaching busts on the Licking River. Most people have no idea that the poaching business in Pendleton County is a mega-money operation and damaging to the environment. Poachers can wipe out entire mussel beds.

Like the drug trade, state forfeiture laws apply to poaching. Those involved risk losing their trucks, boats, scuba gear and other equipment used during the crime. Many of these items have been donated to the Pendleton County Search and Rescue and other departments in the area. Thousands of dollars worth of equipment to aid in useful service rather than illegal activities are the result of these busts.

When asked why he chose police work over fish and wildlife, Hunter answered, "I don't have the love for the outdoors to do fish and wildlife like my dad has. My dad taught me to hunt and fish and I enjoy the outdoors, but not enough to do what he does. And their training is intense. I went 18 weeks. They have to go that 18 weeks and much more."

For those who work in the fish and wildlife business, there are the ordinary demands made on law enforcement officers with the addition of dealing with the elements. The majority of the time is spent outside. There are hours spent fighting mosquitos and frostbite, depending on the time of the year.

Fish and wildlife officers are sworn police officers, qualified to perform the same duties as city and state police officers. However, they typically patrol waterways

Falmouth Council holds special meeting

By Roger McKinney, Reporter

The Falmouth City Council held a special called meeting on July 8, 2014. Three issues were addressed.

Rumpke Vice President Todd Rumpke talked to the lawmakers regarding industrial leachate or Rumpke wastewater that has been processed by the Regional Sewer Plant. Last year the leachate began to produce an odor that was problematic. Mr. Rumpke said that ammonia has been identified as the key culprit. The vice president said that Rumpke would pre-treat and aerate the wastewater before pumping it into the city's system. An additional solution, he said, was to truck the leachate directly to the wastewater plant. He explained that before this could happen Ed Monroe Road would have to be improved or smaller transport vehicles would have to be employed. A motion was passed to create a contract proposal regarding leachate treatment within the next three months. After that document is submitted Rumpke could use the following ninety days to negotiate a final agreement.

City Clerk Terry England reviewed Falmouth's 2014-2015 Budget with the council. The budget was then unanimously approved by the lawmakers.

Ladycat Golf starts season with new coach Timmy Cooper

The Pendleton County Ladycat Golf program is excited to announce that former Wildcat golfer Timmy Cooper will return to his high school alma mater to take over the leadership of the Ladycat Golf program.

Timmy is a 2014 graduate of Union College where he played four years of golf for the Union Bulldogs program after a successful Pendleton County High School golf career. Timmy was a core member of the Wildcats' two regional championship teams and competed in the KHSAA State Golf Tournament.

The Ladycat Golf program has been a successful program over the past seven years with one team appearance in the KHSAA State Golf Tournament and individual appearances the last six years. Nine Ladycat golfers have competed in the KHSAA State Golf Tournament over the past seven years compared to zero in the previous 20 years. Coach Cooper will have two returning Ladycat golfers who have qualified and competed in the state tournament. Senior Mackenzie Moore participated last year and sophomore Holley Hart competed in 2012.

Coach Cooper can be contacted at timothyd.cooper@unionky.edu for more information.

109 Board announces scholarships for adults

The Pendleton County 109 Solid Waste Management Board is happy to announce the sixth year in offering $500 scholarships that will be awarded to a nontraditional adult student September 2014.

A nontraditional student is an adult that is currently attending college or plans to attend college during the fall/spring 2014 semester.

Although, the 109 Board continues to support high school scholarships, the 109 Board wants to support adults returning to college.

GED graduates are encouraged to apply. Previous recipients are not eligible to reapply. The criteria and applications are available through the local Adult Education Office at 654-3325 Ext. 2601. The deadline for submitting this scholarship is August 15, 2014.

Logan reappointed to Ambulance Board

By Roger McKinney, Reporter

The fiscal court approved a motion to reappoint Terry Logan to the Pendleton County Ambulance District Board.

Other business conducted by the Pendleton County Fiscal Court in the July 8, 2014 meeting:

- Approved limestone, dozing, hauling and use of equipment services bids.
- Approved the reappointment of Randy Nor-dheim to the Northern Pendleton Fire District Board.

- Approved Rumpke Franchise Agreement with bi-annual price adjustment.
- Discussed Catawba Bridge issues.

$10 GED testing available for a limited time in

Pendleton Adult Education encourages adults to take advantage of this opportunity

Kentucky Adult Education (KYAE) has announced that eligible adults may take each module of the GED® test at the reduced rate of $10, as a result of $20 vouchers being provided to eligible individuals.

With the use of these limited-time vouchers, the cost of a full GED® test will be only $40. The regular cost of the full battery of GED® testing modules is $120, so this represents an $80 savings to test takers.

"We are really excited for the opportunity for eligible adults to take each GED® test module for just $10," said JoEllen Mitchell director of Pendleton County Adult Education. "We encourage everyone to spread the word about this promotion. It will only last as long as vouchers are available from KYAE, so people need to come in as soon as possible."

The current version of the GED® test was launched by the GED Testing Service™ in January 2014. The test, which is computer-based, consists of four modules: Reasoning Through Language Arts, Mathematical Reasoning, Science and Social Studies. This test allows for individual content modules to be taken one at a time. According to Mitchell, approximately 1627 adult residents of Pendleton County lack high school credentials.

"We know that passing the GED® test opens doors to the future by helping adults prepare for college and job training and to get better jobs," said Mitchell. "We want as many of our eligible residents to take advantage of this opportunity as possible."

Pendleton County Adult Education offers free classes to help adults earn their GED® diploma. The Pendleton County adult education center is located at 500 Chapel Street, Falmouth. The program can be reached by calling 859-654-3325 Ext 2601, by e-mailing joellen.mitchell@pendleton.kyschools.us or visiting the Adult Learning Center FB.

More than 100 new laws take effect in Kentucky this year

By Jack Brammer,

Lexington Herald-Leader

More than 100 new laws approved during Kentucky's 2014 General Assembly go into effect Tuesday, changing how the state deals with everything from acupuncture to voyeurism.

Some of the new laws already are in effect because they contained an "emergency" clause. An example is Senate Bill 124, which allows physicians at the University of Kentucky and University of Louisville to provide oil derived from marijuana and hemp to help people who suffer from certain severe seizures.

Most of the new laws, however, take effect July 15 - 90 days after the session ended April 15.

Here are some of the major ones:

Crime and safety

- House Bill 128: Victims of domestic violence who want concealed carry permits for protection will find them easier to obtain. Anyone who has been granted an emergency protective or domestic violence order will be allowed to receive a provisional concealed carry permit in one business day. The petitioners would undergo the same background checks and application requirements as other applicants but would have up to 45 days to complete the necessary training for a full concealed carry license.

- Senate Bill 184: A person's criminal record could be cleared of a nonviolent offense if a judge determined the offense resulted from being a victim of human trafficking.

- HB 69: It will be a Class D felony to possess a "tax zapper," a device that could be used on a computerized cash register to help a retailer hide sales subject to tax from tax collectors.

- SB 225: The state's voyeurism laws will be updated to outlaw a practice called "up-skirting," in which a cellphone is used to take pictures underneath a woman's skirt without her consent.

- SB 20: October will be designated Anti-Bullying Month, and a purple and yellow ribbon will be designated as the symbol for anti-bullying awareness.

The bill was the idea of students at Madison Middle School in Richmond.

Health care

- SB 98: Adult care employers will be able to check a new adult abuse registry to see if prospective employees have a history of substantiated adult abuse, neglect or exploitation.

- SB 7: Advance practice registered nurses will have broader authority to write prescriptions.

- SB 29: Acupuncturists must be licensed.

- HB 157: Doctors will get more training on recognizing and preventing abusive head trauma among children.

- HB 98: School staff can be trained by health professionals to assist diabetic students with insulin administration.

- SB 47: The state will require periodic reporting of health statistics relating to drug-addicted or dependent newborns.

Transportation

- HB 260: In order to get from one ATV trail to another, an operator of an all-terrain vehicle who is 16 or older will be allowed to cross a public roadway without protective headgear if the speed limit is 45 miles per hour or less.

- SB 66: Known as the "Boater Freedom Act," this law will require boating enforcement officers to have a reasonable suspicion of violation of the state's boating laws before boarding and inspecting a boat on state waterways.

- HB 90: Parents or guardians will be required to make a court appearance when their children who are younger than 18 are cited for a driving traffic violation.

- SB 170: The state will update and expand its list of invasive and noxious plants, such as kudzu and poison hemlock, targeted for eradication from roadsides and public right-of-ways.

- HB 237: The state will implement a $5.2 billion plan for road and bridge projects during the next two fiscal years.

Consumers

- HB 232: Businesses must notify consumers if a security breach might have resulted in the unauthorized acquisition of the consumers' personal or financial information.

- HB 475: Residents near state park lodges and golf courses in counties where alcohol sales aren't allowed will be able to vote on whether by-the-drink alcohol sales should be allowed at the facilities.

- SB 213: Sunday alcohol sales will be permitted at small farm wineries if authorized by a fiscal court vote or a local option election.

Ethics

- HB 28: A lobbyist will not be allowed to buy food or drink for an individual legislator. Also, interest groups will not be able to pay for lawmakers' out-of-state travel, and legislative candidates will be prohibited from accepting campaign contributions during General Assembly sessions from political action committees or organizations that employ lobbyists.

Jobs

- HB 396: Manufacturers of appliances will be eligible for Kentucky Jobs Retention Act benefits. The legislation is expected to help GE invest up to $325 million in its Appliance Park operations in Louisville.

are things more important to me than money."

Hunter gives his father a lot of credit for much of who he is and what he has achieved.

"Dad is a great encourager. I believe I can do anything if he tells me I can."

When asked what he plans to do when he retires, Mickey said, "I'm going to go gun hunting on opening day, I haven't done that in 34 years. I'll still do seminars."

"Dad's a great educator, a great teacher," boasts Hunter proudly.

The Craig legacy is very much based on a set of values too often lacking in today's society. Values that depend more on people and relationships than on monetary gain. It's qualities that are much needed in men and women in law enforcement.

Faith in the face of dual tragedies

The News-Enterprise

David and Tonya Taylor are enduring what can only be described as the unimaginable.

In a span of just 12 days, this Hardin County couple has laid to rest their two young and vibrant children, both killed in tragic accidents.

With them, an entire community mourns. Yet, no one can truly understand the loss and pain they are experiencing.

Late on the evening of June 22, their youngest child, Brianna Taylor, 17, died as a result of injuries she suffered in a violent two-vehicle collision when driving home following an afternoon of fishing friends. An accused and jailed drunken driver failed to stop at the Deckard School Road intersection along the recently opened Patriot Parkway, crossing four traffic lanes and impacting the red Ford Mustang in which Taylor and a friend were traveling. The friend, Mickayla Harig, 18, remains hospitalized at Louisville's University Hospital.

Only days after the funeral for his sister, Brice Taylor, 20, suffered a severe head injury in a freak ATV crash just after midnight on June 30. Taylor's ATV collided with a deer as he was returning home on the four-wheeler after attending a memorial service for his sister at a nearby home. Following emergency surgeries at University Hospital, Brice clung to life for several days.

A solemn social media posting July 5 communicated the saddening news: "Early this morning, David Brice Taylor joined his sister, Brianna Jewell-Rachae Taylor, in Heaven."

An outpouring of love for the Taylor family followed both tragic events and has carried through the funeral for their children.

Through social media pages, candlelight vigils and quickly organized fundraisers, extended family, friends and hundreds more who never met or knew Brianna or Brice offered prayers and encouragement for the grieving family.

That's what we do in heartbreaking times like these. It's often all we can do.

And when words are nonexistent to express shared anguish at the loss of two beautiful young lives, supportive hugs and shoulders on which to cry fill the void.

During Wednesday's funeral, a day when a thousand mourners came to remember his son and encourage his family, it was David Taylor who offered encouragement and words of wisdom to this community. He spoke of the fleeting nature of life, how precious it is while we have it in our grasp, and how important it is to share our love with those important to us.

"When something like this happens, time doesn't matter anymore," Taylor said. "There's so much that we can say. It's never too late."

Though far too short, those who loved and best knew Brianna and Brice forever will be touched by the time they shared with them. Our community will hurt with the Taylors as they work through this difficult and unfair aspect of life.

And as we do, we will never forget the extraordinary example of strength and faith the Taylors and their family demonstrated to us.

Law

and conservation areas to enforce laws specific to wildlife, hunting, boating and fishing.

Like most jobs in law enforcement, there are rigid physical requirements. Applicants must be physically fit and proficient swimmers. They are required to complete 18 weeks of the basic police officer training, 12 weeks at the fish and wildlife, and then spend 16 weeks in field training.

Mickey was a major in wildlife management at Eastern Kentucky University. His first three years with fish and wildlife were spent in the education department. He traveled around to classrooms sharing information about the department and the importance of protecting the environment.

He was the Conservation Education Program leader.

"I like the outdoors," explains Mickey concerning his pleasure in his job. "I thank the Good LORD I was put in this position."

Others have been grateful for his being in that position as well and he has received many recognitions. He was the 1994 Fish and Wildlife Department Officer of the Year; the 2005 National Wild Turkey Federal Officer of the Year; the United Trappers of Kentucky Officer of the Year; the UBK United Bow Hunter of the Year; 2007 Hunter Education Officer of the Year and was selected to the National Wild Turkey Hall of Fame just to name a few of his accomplishments.

However, in speaking with Mickey and his son, it is quickly apparent that nothing he has accomplished in his career means as much as what he has done as a father. As he listens to his son praise him, tears fill his eyes and his paternal affection for the young man in the deputy uniform is very apparent.

The values passed from generation to generation are even more evident when Hunter explains why he likes working with the men at the Pendleton County sheriff's office.

When asked if he likes his work, Hunter smiles broadly. "I enjoy it very much. I really love the camaraderie. Everybody gets along. We know each other's wives, girlfriends and business. We console each other and support each other."

"I've had people ask me why I don't go to a department that pays more. There

The Outlook travels to the home of Duck Dynasty

The Falmouth Outlook traveled to West Monroe, Louisiana with Robbie Gaskins in June while he was on vacation with his family. They visited the Duck Dynasty business, Duck Commander, and later all had lunch at Willie's Duck Diner. The food was described as being "delicious." For those that may not know, Duck Dynasty is an American reality television series on A&E that portrays the lives of the Robertson family. They became very wealthy from their family-operated business which makes products for duck hunters, primarily a duck call known as the "Duck Commander." The Robertson men - brothers Phil and Si, and Phil's sons Jase, Willie, and Jep - are well-known for their long beards and redneck lifestyles.

George W. Beard and Elizabeth Hiler were married on July 17, 1815 in Pendleton County.

Pendleton County student attends Institute for Future Agricultural Leaders

Pendleton County High School junior Missy Combs recently returned home from Kentucky Farm Bureau's Institute for Future Agricultural Leaders (IFAL). She and 45 other high school students from around the state attended the five-day summer leadership conference, held June 22-26 at the University of Kentucky. IFAL is designed to expose high school students to college life while helping them explore the different fields of study for careers in agriculture. During the week, attendees gained a better understanding of the nature and needs of the agriculture industry, saw how basic and applied science is utilized in agriculture and learned of the political process used to develop agricultural policy. Pictured above: Missy Combs (center) is greeted by Mark Haney, president of Kentucky Farm Bureau (left), and Dr. Larry Grabau, University of Kentucky Associate Dean for Instruction (right).

PC Historical Society needs information on local veterans

The Pendleton County Historical and Genealogical Society has an upcoming project and needs the help of local residents. They are planning to publish a book to honor Pendleton County veterans. In order for them to do this they need a picture of the veteran and a brief biography. The biography should include full name, parents' names, spouse, and children. If preferred, any living spouse or children would not be included. One should also include which branch of service, rank, where they served, and war if applicable. If the veteran is from a much earlier time or no picture is available, just the biography is good since they want to include them. The Pendleton County Historical Society knows these photos are precious to families and therefore will do a scan of the pictures if necessary. The Fryer House in Butler is open the first and third Tuesday of each month as well as the third Saturday of the month for regular meetings. Plans can be made to do scans on these dates. If you are unable to make any of these dates, contact: fryer-house41006@gmail.com and someone will reply to set up a date for those who are interested. You can also send your veteran's picture and biography to this email address or mail it to: Pendleton County Historical and Genealogical Society, PO Box 130, Falmouth, KY 41040. ## Citizen proud of the community's July 4 festivities

Dear Editor,

On Saturday, July 5 a community came together to participate in a hometown event. Little ones stood on the side of the streets eager to collect candy thrown from parade participants. American flags and patriotic balloons flew alongside. Lawn chairs lined the sidewalks for a good view of the businesses and community organizations passing by on floats. All the while, local political candidates literally paraded the street seeking our support. Music drifted through the air accompanied by hometown pride. After the parade, a raffle of great prizes drew the attention of many. Some were winners and some were not as lucky. My tickets weren't drawn but I didn't consider myself a loser. I had merely donated to my community.

People with their lawn chairs made their way to the old courthouse lawn to steal some shade from the sun. A line formed at the Falmouth Firehouse of those anticipating a delicious home-cooked meal. Many wondered if there would be enough food for all that gathered. Volunteers served their community, and to my knowledge, no one was turned away without a meal.

After eating, little ones with blue mouths from the cake icing, tossed beach balls in the courthouse lawn. I tossed Frisbee on that same lawn with my five-year old nephew; something I would have never imagined in this place and time. The fun was interrupted when a young lady stepped on a nail nearby, but people came to lend her a hand and comforting word to ease her pain. She walked away with a smile on her face.

People wandered off with full bellies to prepare for the grand finale of the festival... the fireworks. Whether perched on the porches of nearby homes, gathered on the lawn of the skate park, or in the parking lot of a nearby business, there wasn't a bad seat for the show. Little ones danced in their seats waiting for the fireworks to begin. The sky lit up with red, white, and blue...and green and purple too...a small town celebration of our independence. Just a glimpse of what our community CAN look like. It did for one day.

Good job, Falmouth Festival Committee and Falmouth City Council! Well done!

Proudly,
Amy Pugh

Kentucky ranks in top five states for the number of painkiller prescription users in America

Kentucky ranks in the top five states in the number of opiate painkiller prescriptions written per 100 people.

In a report released this month from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, doctors nationally wrote 259 million prescriptions for painkillers in 2012, "enough for every American adult to have a bottle of pills."

Joining Kentucky in the top five are Tennessee, Alabama, West Virginia and Oklahoma. For every 100 people in Kentucky in 2012, 128 painkiller prescriptions were written.

In Warren County, the number of doses of controlled substances prescribed rose from 8.3 million in 2004 to 13.3 million doses last year. Controlled substances include narcotics, amphetamines, benzodiazepines and other drugs with the potential for abuse.

drome and drug overdose hospital and emergency room visits are all symptoms of having too many prescription narcotics available," Ingram said.

Ingram also cited heroin as another contributing factor to drug-addicted newborns and overdose deaths. "Of drug overdose patients (in 2013) investigated by the Kentucky Medical Examiner's Office, 32 percent of the decedents had heroin in their bloodstreams," he said.

"All of the things in House Bill 1 are having an impact. Are we seeing as much as we would like to see as fast as we would like to see it? No. But we've got to stay the course," Ingram said.

and physicians were required to recognize the right of patients to appropriate assessment and management of pain. While physicians are required to treat and assess pain and follow increasing regulations in prescribing practices, they are at the same time having to deal with less Medicaid reimbursement for interventional pain treatments such as epidural injections that are narcotic free.

"You are damned if you do and you are damned if you do not," Pasupuleti said. "That's where doctors are today. Five years ago I was on a tightrope. Now I am on a unicycle juggling five balls on a tightrope."

Tommy Loving, Bowling Green-Warren County Drug Task Force director, said the Joint Commission requirements came about as a result of a study funded by a pharmaceutical company that produces narcotic pain medication, and he agrees that the 2001 regulations contributed to the flood of narcotic prescriptions.

Dr. Ram Pasupuleti, a Bowling Green pain management physician, agrees that the reforms in House Bill 1 have started making a dent in the availability of prescription pills. He believes that the number of overdose deaths will in time decrease as the amount of pain killer prescriptions decreases.

"Unfortunately, Kentucky has always had the dubious distinction of being in the top five or 10 in use, abuse or misuse," Pasupuleti said.

Pasupuleti's patient load has grown significantly since House Bill 1 went into effect because many primary care physicians have either reduced the number of opiate prescriptions they write or have stopped writing them altogether and are referring patients to specialty pain physicians such as Pasupuleti.

He requires his patients to undergo routine drug screening and has become adept at determining the difference between a person who needs pain treatment and a person who only wants pills. Pasupuleti offers multimodality pain treatment, and pills are not his first choice.

"I believe the overprescribing by some physicians has needlessly addicted many individuals to opiates that otherwise would not have become addicted," he said.

"The bulk of the problem has to be addressed by physicians because police can't write prescriptions. That's not to say that there are certainly not drugs on the street and prescriptions being diverted, but again we come back to the source," Loving said.

Pasupuleti would like to see a national scheduled drug prescription database that works like KASPER in Kentucky. For cities like Louisville that are within a close driving distance to Indiana, a national database that states all share could be helpful in identifying doctor shoppers, he said.

"It needs to be done," he said.

In law enforcement, Loving sees the human cost of opiate addiction.

"You see neglected children," he said. "You see abused children because of this. In eastern Kentucky, this problem is much worse there, and my counterparts tell me they have lost an entire generation because of this."

"You have injured children and injured adults. You have DUI on pills. The problem is once people become addicted, the only thing they really concentrate on is getting more drugs, not on taking care of their household or the children or anything else. You see bankruptcies because of this - a lot of spinoff crimes, your thefts, your burglaries."

"Things have improved. I think these sort of things are going to improve over time," Loving said. "We didn't get into the mess overnight, and we're not going to get out of it overnight."

"Certainly research has borne out that having a glut of supply leads to problems," said Van Ingram, executive director of the Kentucky Office of Drug Control Policy.

However, Ingram points out that the CDC report does not include a full year's worth of data on Kentucky after the state enacted legislation, House Bill 1, that became effective in the third quarter of 2012 placing more stringent requirements on controlled substance prescribers.

House Bill 1, which was approved in April 2012, mandated that Kentucky prescribers who write prescriptions for controlled substances run a Kentucky All Schedule Prescription Electronic Reporting report on their patients to try to prevent doctor shopping and to deter prescription pill abusers from obtaining and/or diverting controlled substances such as narcotic painkillers.

KASPER is an electronic prescription drug monitoring database that allows prescribers to find out if their patients have obtained a controlled substance from another Kentucky prescriber. Prior to HB 1, prescribers' participation in the program was not mandatory.

"Although I'm not disputing the accuracy of this (CDC) report, I wish we had 2013 data included in it," Ingram said. "I think that would have made a difference in where our state fell as far as prescribing. We have seen a 10.5 percent decline in oxycodone and a 11 percent decline in hydrocodone" since House Bill 1 went into effect.

Even though those numbers are falling, the number of Kentuckians dying every month from drug overdoses remains steady at about 82. The number of drug-addicted babies born with neonatal abstinence syndrome has climbed significantly from 28 in 2000 to 955 last year, Ingram said.

"Drug overdose deaths, neonatal abstinence syn-

"A big advantage (of House Bill 1) is a patient is seeing a pain specialist to cut down on inappropriate prescriptions," he said. The disadvantage is the access to narcotic pain medication has declined overall and affects people who may only need short-term pain management for something such as a broken bone.

While opiate abuse is nothing new, Pasupuleti points to pain management standards that changed in 2001 as one of the causes leading to overuse and abuse of prescription pain pills.

The Joint Commission that accredits and certifies health care organizations and programs in the United States changed pain management standards Jan. 1, 2001.

"When they came out and said that pain is not being assessed, it created a paradigm shift in physicians treating pain," Pasupuleti said. "They introduced pain as a fifth vital sign."

That's when hospitals and doctors began asking people to describe their pain on a number scale from one to 10

NJROTC filled 125 bags of trash in 10 miles

Dear Editor,

On Saturday, April 26, 2104 the Pendleton County High School NJROTC unit picked up trash along 10 miles of county roads that included Highway 27, from the Campbell County line to Route 17, the road 3149 near Butler. The 27 NJROTC cadets were joined by eight members of the eighth grade ROTC club form Sharp Middle School and 12 chaperones. The group filled 125 bags with trash and separated the aluminum cans that were taken to a recycling center. Most of the trash included fast food bags and

Great tips for lawn mower maintenance

It's the season for outdoor fun in your yard. It's also the season for lawn mower maintenance.

Paying attention to lawn mower maintenance, particularly for riding mowers, can pay off in many ways. It increases your mower's performance, reliability and even durability.

Take care of scheduled maintenance before something becomes an issue and costs you big bucks. Here a few tips from the experts at Exmark Manufacturing, a leading manufacturer of commercial zero-turn mowers:

- Cleaning: Clean often but minimize use of water. Water can lead to corrosion, among other problems. Use compressed air or blowers as much as possible. If you do use water, make sure you grease and lubricate afterwards.
- Adjust new belts: Check the belt three times in the first 24 hours of use, and adjust if necessary. During this time, the belt is fitting into the pulleys. If it is allowed to loosen as it fits in, you may spin or burn it, drastically reducing its life.

- Sharpen and balance mower blades: Every eight to 10 hours of use, sharpen blades and replace damaged ones. Blade-balancing tools are inexpensive and readily available. Consider keeping an extra set of sharp, balanced blades.

Proper mower maintenance can go a long way to making yard work easier.

Protect your family from tick bites and Lyme disease

More than 30,000 cases of Lyme disease are reported each year, making it the most commonly reported vector-borne illness in the US, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Make sure your family isn't part of that number.

As the warmer months coax us outside, reducing the risk of tick bites is essential to protecting your family from Lyme disease and its potential long-term, devastating effects.

Lyme disease can cause facial or Bell's palsy, severe headaches, neck stiffness, heart palpitations, and pain and swelling in large joints. However, it's difficult to diagnose, as symptoms can be attributed to other health problems. Left untreated, approximately 60 percent of Lyme disease sufferers experience arthritis, while five percent develop chronic neurological challenges months or years after the infection.

"Had I understood the potential severity of Lyme disease and taken the threat seriously, I might have saved my children from years of suffering," says Jennifer Reid, a mother of two children affected by Lyme disease and Community Coordinator for the BLAST Lyme Disease Prevention Program. "Prevention is possible."

BLAST is a helpful acronym representing basic tick bite prevention measures: bathe, look for ticks, apply repellents, spray the yard and treat your pets. Additionally, Reid recommends taking these simple steps:

For People

- Avoid wooded and busy areas with high grass and leaf litter.
- Apply repellent to exposed skin and clothing before outdoor activities.
- Bathe or shower right after spending time outdoors and conduct a full-body tick check. Use a mirror to see hard to reach places such as the under arms, belly button, scalp, and behind the knees.

For Pets

- Check pets for ticks daily and remove them as soon as possible.
- Talk with your veterinarian about using tick preventatives on your pet.
- Watch pets closely for changes in behavior or appetite. This may indicate Lyme disease infection.

In Your Yard

- Place a wood chip or gravel barrier between your lawn, patio, and play equipment and any wooded areas. This will restrict tick migration into recreational areas.
- Mow the lawn frequently and keep leaves raked.
- Keep playground equipment and patios away from yard edges and trees and place them in sunny locations, if possible.

This season, take charge of your backyard and learn how to protect your family.

ATTENTION CITY RESIDENTS DELINQUENT CITY TAXES

The City of Falmouth is attempting to collect delinquent property taxes. A second notice was mailed previously. You will be given until August 30th to pay. After that date, all delinquent taxes will be published in the Falmouth Outlook. This step has never been done by the City in previous years, but due to lost revenue, we must take the necessary steps to collect delinquent taxes. If you need to verify payment, please call the City Clerk's Office at 859-654-6937.

Adrenalyn Nightclub to hold grand opening!

Falmouth's newest and what's sure to be hottest place in town, Adrenalyn Nightclub, is set to hold its grand opening Thursday, July 24 - Saturday, July 26 at 228 Main Street (the old Pendleton County Public Library). The spacious, 21 year and older only establishment is sure to be a popular gathering place for those who like to enjoy a few adult beverages in a good, clean, social atmosphere. Adrenalyn Nightclub will be open from 5 p.m. - 12 a.m. three nights a week (Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays) with plenty of activities planned for patrons. There will be pool tournaments held on Thursdays, karaoke on Fridays and bands performing on Saturdays with The Beer Money Band kicking off the live entertainment opening weekend. After that, Spencer Creek, Jo Jo Gunn and Southern Highway are booked to hit the stage and get you up and moving on Adrenalyn's sizeable dance floor. The new club also features a wide variety of the most popular brands of beer available, carryout, great waitressing service, snacks, four pool tables, a state of the art internet jukebox, big screen TVs to catch your favorite sports teams in action, an outstanding stage and light show, plenty of seating (a large bar area is available or tables for a more intimate setting), an outside smoking patio and clean, private bathrooms. New activities and events are also being planned for the near future. "You haven't had a rush until you've experienced an Adrenalyn rush," said owner/operator Bill Jolley. "I invite everyone to come out and see this club for yourself. You're bound to have a great time!" You can like and follow Adrenalyn Nightclub on Facebook. Article by Jackie Vaughn.

SHIP volunteers needed

Legal Aid of the Bluegrass' State Health Insurance Assistance Program (SHIP), a non-profit organization has been giving a helping hand to people with Medicare in navigating the healthcare maze for over 20 years.

The focus of the SHIP program is to educate and assist Medicare beneficiaries and the elderly in making informed decisions regarding benefits based on their circumstances and needs. In the past two years the SHIP program has helped Medicare beneficiaries apply for over $7 million in money-saving benefits and over $25,000 monthly in Medicare premium expenses. But that's not all. The SHIP program has also saved Medicare beneficiaries nearly $2 million in annual drug costs and over $170,000 in monthly grocery costs.

These numbers would not be this significant without the assistance of volunteers. The program is currently recruiting volunteers to assist with its mission. Give a helping hand to the people in your community by become SHIP volunteer. For more information on how to volunteer, contact 1-800-888-8189 Ext. 2002.

ACS untangles online cancer information

Following diagnosis, cancer patients and their loved ones often seek any information they can find to help them navigate the baffling disease.

To cut through the confusion, the American Cancer Society has developed information resources available to anyone, anywhere, anytime at 1-800-227-2345 or cancer.org.

By contacting the American Cancer Society, cancer patients can quickly receive treatment information or local support programs. Caregivers can access information on coping. General information, including facts and statistics about cancer, is also readily available.

"A cancer diagnosis is a devastating experience, not only for the patient but for everyone around them," said Alex Carson, senior manager of American Cancer Society's Relay For Life. "Knowledge truly is power. The American Cancer Society helps people easily connect with information to lessen the burden, calm the fears and prepare for the road ahead."

These information resources are made possible in part by support from donations to Relay For Life of Pendleton County, which raised over $23,000 on June 20. Donations may still be accepted for this year until August 31.

For more information about cancer, please call 1-800-227-2345 or visit cancer.org on the internet.

No matter who you are, we're here to help 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Recreation fall sports ready for kick-off

The Pendleton County Recreation baseball and fast pitch seasons concluded just a few weeks ago but the PC Recreation football, cheerleading and soccer are ready to start with their first practices.

Parents can visit the Pendleton County local government website <http://pendletoncounty.ky.gov> and click on Recreation/Sports to download registration forms. They can also be picked up at the Pendleton County Recreation Office located in the Griffin Fitness Center from 5-9 p.m. p.m., Monday-Friday.

• Youth football practices on Monday, Wednesday and Thursdays starting on Monday, July 14 from 5:30- 7:30 p.m. at the youth football field located at Pendleton County Athletic Park. Parents can sign up their child at practices. Players must be in attendance for 10 practices before they are allowed to play in a game per league rules. Jimmy and Tita Rogers are the football youth directors and questions can be sent to them at jl06tar@yahoo.com

• Youth football cheerleading practice is on Monday and Thursdays starting on Monday, July 14 from 5:30-7:30 p.m. at the youth football field located at Pendleton County Athletic Park. Parents can sign up their child at practices. Cheerleaders who sign up for both football and competitive cheer receive a discount. Mallory Mullins the cheer youth director and questions can be sent to her at malnov28@yahoo.com

• Youth competitive cheerleading practice is on Wednesday starting on Wednesday, July 16 from 5:30-7:30 p.m. in the auxiliary gym at PCHS. Cheerleaders who sign up for both football and competitive cheer receive a discount. Mallory Mullins the cheer youth director and questions can be sent to her at malnov28@yahoo.com

• Youth soccer will start in mid-August but don't put off signing up your child today and reserve their spot on a team. As always, the goal is to create gender specific leagues but will be dependent on the number of females that are registered. Steven Peed is the soccer youth director and questions can be sent to him at steven.peed@pendleton.kyschools.us

Tuesday, July 15 at 8 a.m.-12 p.m. in the Pendleton County High School main gym. Tryouts/practice will continue on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday each morning.

Contact coach Laura.Buck@Pendleton.kyschools.us for more information/questions.

PCEF Golf Scramble to be held on August 5

The Pendleton County Education Foundation will have its 20th annual golf scramble at Pendleton Country Club on Tuesday, August 5. It's not too early for you to make plans to participate in this event.

Piles Chevrolet, Olds, Buick Inc. of Williamstown will again sponsor a hole-in-one contest. Local businesses or individuals will sponsor contests for men's longest drive, women's longest drive, longest made putt, and three closest to the pin. In addition, the top three scoring teams will receive prize money of $400, $300, and $200.

PCEF is a private, non-profit organization whose main purpose is to provide scholarships to graduating Pendleton County seniors.

PCEF also helps fund the character education programs of the four county schools and other special events.

The golf scramble is PCEF's only fundraiser so your support of this event is important and greatly appreciated. Cost of the scramble is $60 per player.

For further details please call Dennis Seever at 859-654-6011.

Eddie Wright Memorial Scholarship fundraisers

The first annual Eddie Wright Memorial Scholarship Fund Cornhole Tournament will be held on Friday, August 1 at the Southern Elementary ball fields. Entry fee is $5 per person and winners will split the pot. Drawing for teams starts at 6:30 p.m. followed by the tournament.

Contact Brad Wright at 859-322-3481 with any questions.

The Eddie Wright Memorial Men's Softball Tournament will be held August 2-3 (depending on the number of teams) at the big field by Southern Elementary in Falmouth. The entry fee is $200 per team and includes umpire's fees. It is a double elimination tournament and you will hit your own 44 core balls.

Silent auction items are currently being accepted.

Making use of your student ID

If you're headed to college this fall, you'll most likely be issued a student ID card during orientation or registration. Most likely, your card will have your photo and student number on it. Most colleges require students to carry their ID cards with them at all times while on campus. Use it well, the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority (KHEAA) advises.

Your ID card will often be your dorm room key and your debit card for on-campus meals and the bookstore. It's also your entry into most of the campus buildings such as libraries, labs, test centers, campus health centers, workout facilities and some classrooms.

Many ID cards have a barcode imbedded in them, which lets you use your card to register for classes, add or drop classes, view your financial aid, view your final grades and more.

Don't deface the card or damage it in any way, and try not to lose it. Your first ID card is usually free, but you'll most likely have to pay for a new one.

In addition to all the uses on campus, many businesses in college towns will give you a discount if you present a valid student ID, so you can save some money here and there.

KHEAA is the state agency that administers Kentucky's grant and scholarship programs, including the Kentucky Educational Excellence Scholarship (KEES). It provides financial literacy videos at <http://itsmoney.kheaa.com>. KHEAA also provides free copies of "It's Money, Baby," a guide to financial literacy, to Kentucky schools and residents upon request at publications@kheaa.com.

THE NATE JONES REPORT

By Jack Wright

Pendleton County's hometown Major League Baseball star, Nathan Andrew "Nate" Jones, is in his third season as a relief pitcher with the Chicago White Sox. Below are brief details of his in-game activities for the week ending July 13, 2014.

Jones has been on the White Sox disabled list since April 4 due to a herniated disc in his lower spine area that required microdiscectomy surgery on May 5.

Sunday, July 13 was the last Major League baseball game prior to the Tuesday, July 15 Major League All-Star Game in Minneapolis, Minnesota. It also marked over three-months of in-game inactivity for Nate Jones. One can only imagine the anxiety and frustration he is experiencing. He and his family shall not be returning to Pendleton County during the three-day All-Star Game break. They shall remain in Chicago so Nate can continue rehabilitation activities with the White Sox training staff.

Jones is progressing positively to rehabilitation activities, and continues to believe he will be an active member of the White Sox relief pitching staff by late July, or early August.

Jones' stats for the season: 2 games; 0.0 innings pitched; 5 batters faced; 29 pitches (13 strikes); 2 hits; 3 walks; 4 runs (earned); 1 blown save.

Sox season record: 45 wins; 51 losses; fourth place in the American League Central Division; ten-and-a-half games behind the division leading Detroit Tigers.

Comments and/or suggestions about this column are welcome and can be emailed to jack\_19366@msn.com. Currently there are 192 members of The Jones Report distribution group that receive instant email reports each time he pitches and sometimes when he doesn't. ## PCHS CheerCats Camp to be held on July 18

The CheerCats Camp that was originally scheduled for June 16-19 was postponed due to unforeseen scheduling conflicts. The CheerCats Camp will now be a day camp held from 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. on Friday, July 18 with a showcase for parents and an awards presentation at 5:30 p.m. that evening at PCHS.

The cost of the event will be $40 per camper ($70 for two sibling children). The camp will be serving lunch and a snack to the participants and also providing them with a camp T-shirt.

Registration forms are available on the PCHS Athletics website or they can be picked up in the weight room at the high school between 4-9 p.m. weekdays. All forms for campers must be returned by Tuesday, July 15 to ensure a T-shirt for the event.

Cross Country start run to KHSAA State Meet

The Ladycat and Wildcat Cross Country teams have been very successful programs with numerous individual and team appearances in the KHSAA State Cross Country Meet. Both Cross Country teams practice together under the successful tutelage of varsity coach Marcia Hatfield. They will start their 2014 season on Tuesday, July 15, then continue on Wednesday and Thursday on their home course at Sharp Middle School from 7-8:30 p.m. On Saturday, they will be at Kincaid from 8:30 a.m. - 5 p.m.

RELIGION

BUTLER METHODIST
We started off the Sunday of Independence Day service with a rendition of "Let Freedom Ring" by Abby Anderson. Along in the service we sang "America the Beautiful" and then Brenda Hitch sang a special song in honor of the holiday. It was a very nice service.

Hope all the kiddos and also the staff had a great time during our three evening VBS this past week. Lots of preparation went into making this a nice time for all of those who came. A big thanks to Tammy and Becca for leading us during this week.

Faith Day with the Cincinnati Reds will be August 10. Get your tickets from Ken Campbell if you would like to go.

On July 16 there will be an outreach and witness on the lawn of River Valley Nursing Home for residents and their families. A sing-a-long and special guests for solos and duets and the gospel will be proclaimed. Come join in the fun from 7-9 p.m., snacks and drinks will be provided.

On July 26 it will be Cruz in with old cars during the day then ministers movie night in Butler.

Please pray for Pat Bray, Brenda's nephew, Anna's friend Vivian's family, Phil Barrie (in a bad wreck), Anita Gode, Bob Shanklin, Shirley Race, Gary Holmes, Brenda Campbell's sister and all those others in need of prayer.

CHAPEL OF PRAISE
Sister Shelia Justice opened the morning service with the reading of the preliminaries and Sister Carmen Williams opened in prayer.

We were delighted to have Sister Tiara Asbury and daughter back in service with us.

The message of the Holy Spirit was titled, "Who is He?" The scripture readings were from Mark's Gospel chapter six. Jesus and His disciples returned to His home town of Nazareth. He began to speak in their Synagogue, yet, the Holy Spirit said they were full of contempt and saw Jesus as only a poor carpenter and not the Savior of the world.

In their eyes, He was not worthy to speak unto them.

Because of their disbelief and harden hearts, Jesus was only able to perform a few miracles and heal a few sick people.

God often uses "unlikely candidates" to carry out His work and will here on earth, what God approves of...man disapproves of.

So often times, we allow the devil to remind us of our past, but we need to remind him of his future.

When people look down on us because of our shortcomings from the past...let us remember this great truth. Every sinner has a past and every saint has a future!

Beginning July 16 we will begin a new Bible study on the book of Revelation and discuss things that are about to unfold near the end of the church age.

FAIRVIEW BAPTIST
The Fairview Baptist Church at the intersection of 1032 and 1744 in Kelat, Ky., will be hosting a summer revival July 18-20. This is a time to come to the foot of the cross for renewal, rejuvenation, and the instilling of hope. There will be dynamic speakers and special music each night. Speakers are:

Bro. Rick Lockhart, Friday 7 p.m.

Bro. Harry Crozier, Saturday 7 p.m.

Bro. Keith Hemphill, Sunday 11 a.m.

Sis. Angie Hemphill, Sunday 6 p.m., with the CrossFire Crew.

FALMOUTH BAPTIST
We celebrated Independence Day by enjoying a beautiful song titled, "American Christian" sung by Troy Wolfe. Thank you Troy, great job!

America is a very proud nation that was founded on religious freedom. But we must remember that only Jesus can truly set us free. John 8:36 tells us "So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed." We are also cautioned about being proud. Instead of being proud, we need to humbly thank God for helping us become the great nation we are. Luke 18:14 says in part "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

Congratulations to Haven Wolfe who has just been crowned Miss Pre-Teen United States while competing in Washington DC. That is quite an honor for a lovely young lady from our community.

Stop by and worship with us at Falmouth Baptist Church.

FALMOUTH CHRISTIAN
Bro. Rick's message was from Psalm 133:1-3 and Psalm 134:1-3 titled, "The Beauty of Unity."

Unity and beauty attracted us to our spouse, what does God see when He looks down upon us? If we are obeying His commandments, He will shower us with many blessings. Remember to always thank God for His blessings.

Pray for the many people who are ill and the ones who have lost loved ones.

Our youth are leaving for church camp this coming week. Pray for them to be safe and to have a great time.

Sunday school at 9:30 a.m., and worship at 10:45 a.m.

Go to church somewhere Sunday. God is looking for you.

HARVEST COMMUNITY
Many thanks to Brady Purdy for sharing his message Sunday morning titled, "Doing your Part." It is important to listen to what God's word says, but it is much more important to obey it, to do what it says. We must step up for Christ, step out of our comfort zone and stand out and let others see what God is doing and has done in our lives.

Men's meeting/breakfast is at 8 a.m., Saturday, July 19. Our youth are preparing for their mission trip at the end of the month.

Prayer concerns: Donnie Spencer, Jim Bergman, Brenda Ambercrombie, Esther Lytle, Paul Haubner, Janice and Phil Wiggins, Barbara Singer, Zelma King, Elstun Bobb, Pat Ray and the families of Jaunita King and Kyle Wyatt.

We invite you to come be our guest at 111 E. Shelby St. Blessings for a wonderful week!

MORGAN CHRISTIAN
We were honored to have Kenny Allender and his family with us today. He recounted memories of nickel cokes and penny bubble gum at the store in Morgan and attending the old Morgan grade school. His sermon was titled, "Sin, Faith and Duty." Estille Vaughn was our moderator. Kathie's Children's Moment was about July 4, independence and how God has blessed our great nation with freedom. Children celebrated by lighting sparklers. Elders Earl Wilmes and Kathie Moreland served at the table with deacons Brad Mattill, April Lecrone, Connie and Buddy Hannah serving the Lord's Supper.

Join us Wednesdays at 6 p.m., for supper and Bible discussions, Sunday at 10 a.m., for Sunday school and 11 a.m., church. Dr. Mike Schafer will be blessing us with music and message July 13, fellowship Sunday.

"Reputation is what others think about you. Character is what you know about yourself."

MT. GILEAD
Service: At 2:30 p.m., Sunday, July 20, 2014 with songs, prayer, preaching and the love of Christ.

Also, there will be the beauty of the country sides and a stroll in the cemetery to visit with our departed friends.

There is something about attending the old country churches. It's not that they are better than the larger town churches, it is just a close feeling with Jesus found in those old country churches.

See you at Mt. Gilead at 2:30 p.m., July 20!

MT. MORIAH
Our worship leader Davy Lovelace opened our service by reading Psalms 67. The Choir sang "Count Your Many Blessings." The sermon was about those who need a physician. People asked Jesus why He ate with publicans and sinners. Jesus replied that sick people and sinners are the ones that needed a physician. A sinner is one who breaks the divine law—rejecting Jesus. Don't doubt; trust Jesus. Sinners need to be given as opportunity and not be ignored.

Our sympathy to the family of Ron Hall. We added Glen Shell, Rosalee LaFollette, Barbara Singer and the Doan Family to our prayer list. We are happy to report that Chuck Tackett is home from the hospital and that David Lovelace Sr. has been declared cancer free.

Pray for the Armed Forces as they try to protect our country.

"The Church is a hospital for sinners—a place to receive mercy."

NEW ZION
Come join us for worship and Christian fellowship. Sunday school begins at 10 a.m., morning worship is at 11 a.m., and evening worship starts at 6:30 p.m. Bible study and the CrossFire Crew meetings are on Wednesdays at 6 p.m.

Upcoming opportunities:

"I will give thanks to the Lord with all my heart; I will tell of all Your wonders."
~ Psalm 9:1

At 7 p.m., July 19 we will have our annual Ice Cream Social, yum! There will be a cake auction on July 20 given by the Mission Team. July 23-27 the CrossFire Crew will be having their summer camp.

James 1:22, "But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves."

Please remember in prayer Janet Bishop, Tina Cochran, Jan Vader, Ann Branham, Gary and Alice Holmes, Pam Bruin and the King family. Also remember to pray for our country and its leaders.

PINE GROVE
Why do we celebrate the Fourth of July with fireworks, cookouts and other festivities? We know it's our way of expressing our thanks to those who fought at Fort Sumpter and to Francis Scott Key for the beautiful poem he wrote as he observed the battle that gave us our freedom. Today, we sing it as our national anthem. We also honor our many men and women who have fought for us since that day in 1776.

Sunday, July 6 the congregation at Pine Grove made it a special day. We enjoyed singing the old familiar patriotic hymns, Sue Emminger read a poem about Old Glory and all the places it has flown and all the battles in which it has been battered and torn, but still waves proudly.

Carol shared a book, a familiar heirloom, which honored the soldiers on the foreign battle fields. Her message continued the thoughts that climaxed our observation of this great day. Following our services the congregation enjoyed a potluck meal.

But as we say thanks to our veterans, let's thank our forefathers who composed our Constitution and added the Bill of Rights which gives us our religious freedom. Have you ever thought what it would be like on Sunday morning if you couldn't go to the church of your choice? Let's keep our flag flying and our church doors open.

The U.M.W. invites the congregation to its yearly outing which will be at 5:30 p.m., July 16 at El Paso's, Falmouth.

OAKLAND CHRISTIAN
Stop and ponder: Do we still trust in God? Jesus knew exactly what we far too often forget/ignore, nothing in this world is 100 percent trustworthy, but we can trust God totally and completely!

Oakland Christian Workers will meet July 16 at the home of Louise Browning.

"SON"day Fun Day for toddlers through sixth grade following morning worship. Lunch is first. (Bring a side dish.)

OCC revival begins July 27-30 with L.D. Campbell as Evangelist.

"Back to School Lock-In Bash" is August 1 for sixth grade and up. We are asking for school supplies and food that night.

Our sympathy to loved ones of Kathryn Daugherty and Juanita King. Prayer concerns include Henry Bertram, Zelma King, Pam Bruin, Gary Figgins, Bev Bass, Connie McCann, Charles Ernest Wright, Barbara Singer, Ernetta Turner, Robbie Nieves, Mike Childress, Lisa Green, Richard Colvin, Pat Ray, Gary Holmes, shut-ins, cancer issues, armed forces and our leaders.

SOUTHSIDE
On Sunday July 6, 2014 the morning worship service was opened with the help of our young people with the pledge of allegiance to the American flag, the Christian flag, and the Holy Bible.

Marvin Sullivan quoted the "Gettysburg Address" followed with the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" on his harmonica. Bro. Clay Sullivan preached the sermon, "Fourth of July of 2014." We, as Christians, need to do our part to bless America by praying unceasingly, living righteously and evangelizing fervently the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The memory verse for the week comes from 1 Timothy 2:1, "I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgiving be made for all people."

VBS will be taking place on Saturday July 19, 2014 from 10 a.m., to 3 p.m.

Come and worship with us this Sunday with Sunday school at 9 a.m., and morning worship service at 10 a.m.

TURNER RIDGE
Hope everyone is enjoying their summer and is putting God first in all they do! Sunday morning Britany Baumgartner and Taylor Jordan reported back on the work they had helped with while on the mission trip in Cayce.

We read the Church Covenant and shared in responsive reading from Isaiah 53:1-12. During the children's message Bro. Dale had a string tied on his finger, he explained that this was a way to help you remember something you didn't want to forget to do during the service this morning we will observe the Lord's Supper, so we can remember Jesus died on the cross for our sins.

Adam Duncan read scripture Acts 2:41-42. As we began the observance of the Lord's Supper we focused on 1 Corinthians 10:16 "The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?"

As you read this we are in the middle of our week of VBS, please pray for the children, adults and workers that all are led by Jesus Christ.

Grilled Vegetables with Goat Cheese and Balsamic

What You Need

- 1/2 c olive oil (approx)
- 2 large onions
- 4 zucchini - sliced about 1/2 inch thick circles
- 4 peppers (any pepper you like); stemmed, seeded and quartered
- 1 eggplant - sliced about 1/4 inch thick circles
- 3 or 4 carrots, sliced
- 1/2 c balsamic vinegar
- 8 oz goat cheese (or soft cheese of your choice)
- Kosher salt and pepper, to taste
- Handful of pine nuts (opt)

Directions

- Wash and cut all vegetables. Place in a large bowl or plastic bag.
- Add 1/2 the olive oil, salt and pepper. Mix well. Place in the refrigerator for at least 1 hour.
- If grilling outside, preheat your grill to medium-low and brush grate with olive oil. Place vegetables on grill for 2-4 minutes each side.
- If roasting in the oven, preheat oven to 350 degrees. Lightly coat pan with olive oil and cook until each side has a nice golden brown color.
- While veggies are grilling/roasting, heat balsamic vinegar in saucepan and reduce by at least half.
- Arrange cooked veggies on platter, top with goat cheese and drizzle balsamic vinegar over the top. Add nuts (optional).
- Serve with crunchy bread, soft pita or flat bread.

Cloverville to debut at state fair

As state fair attendees enter the West Hall of the Kentucky Exposition Center in Louisville this August, they are going to notice something new. Due to donations from businesses and individuals across Kentucky, 4-H has a new Cloverville.

Cloverville is an annual attraction at the Kentucky State Fair. The new Cloverville is replacing the old structure, which was 40 years old and unable to accommodate the increasing number of 4-H entries. The new Cloverville will maintain the original's small-town feel with six storefronts, an information center and stage. 4-H officials will host a ribbon cutting ceremony for the new structure August 15.

Cloverville offers 4-H's opportunities to showcase their abilities and compete for statewide ribbons and awards. Fair visitors get to see examples of 4-H projects and our young people's work ethic. Some of these projects took 4-H's weeks, months and,

Planning for fall vegetables

It's time to start planning how you can continue to enjoy your garden and even add new plantings. You can plant a variety of produce in Kentucky gardens in the coming weeks allowing fresh items to be available well into the fall.

The cooler nights experienced later in the year as these vegetables mature may increase the sugar content of many crops and thus increase their quality. Cooler nights also slow growth, so crops can take longer to mature than in the summer. Keep this slower pace in mind when you check seeds for days to maturity.

Late July or early August would be the time to make a last planting of bush beans, carrots, sweet corn, kale, collards, bibb lettuce, turnips and cole crops such as kohlrabi, Chinese cabbage, brussels sprouts, cabbage, cauliflower and broccoli. For late August and into September try planting mustard greens, spinach greens, radishes, turnip greens and leaf lettuce.

Before planting, remove any existing debris including crops and weeds to the compost bin and cultivate the soil.

If the previous crop was well fertilized and grew vigorously you may need to add little if any additional fertilizer, otherwise apply about two to three pounds of a complete fertilizer such as 5-10-10 or 10-10-10 per 100 square feet of planting area.

Remember to keep fall gardens well watered as this tends to be a fairly dry time in Kentucky. A weekly irrigation sufficient to wet the soil to six or eight inches should be adequate. This is more or less equivalent to a weekly one-inch rain.

To learn more about fall gardening options, contact the Pendleton County Cooperative Extension Service.

It's time for pickles

There is nothing that sets off a cold cut sandwich better than the taste of a pickle, and with so many varieties, you are bound to find one to suit every palate. So it probably won't surprise you that pickles are a popular home food preservation item.

To ensure safe, tasty home-canned pickles, always follow research-based recipes, such as those offered by Extension, that have been tested for product safety. Follow the recipe and use the proper amounts of the appropriate ingredients to yield the best flavor from your food and to prevent food-borne illness.

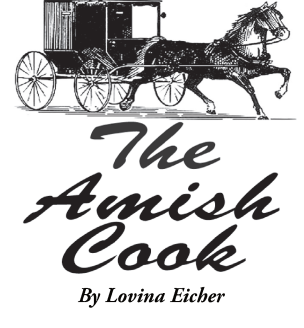

Quick-process pickles usually consist of cucumbers or other vegetables, vinegar, spices and seasonings. Always use fresh, firm vegetables for pickling. Discard a one-sixteenth inch slice from the blossom end of the vegetable to help keep the final product firm. Blossoms contain enzymes that can cause vegetables to soften. Soaking the cucumbers or other vegetables in salt water for several hours before covering with the pickling liquid will allow for easier packing.

When making pickles, use only commercial vinegar that has at least five percent acidity. Do not dilute the vinegar unless specified in the recipe, because the acidity is needed for a safe product. The addition of vinegar makes pickles a high-acid food, which allows them to be safely processed using a boiling-water canner. Use canning or pickling salt. Table salt may make the pickling mixture cloudy. Use white sugar unless the recipe calls for brown.

Quick-process pickles are more flavorful if allowed to sit for several weeks after processing. This allows the vegetables to aromatically blend with the seasonings and spices.

If you are new to home canning, a good place to start is with the Extension publication FCS3-578 "Home Canning Basics." More information on pickling and recipes for beginning, intermediate and advanced canners and for individuals with dietary restrictions are available in publication FCS3-582 "Home Canning Pickled and Fermented Foods." Both publications are available online at <http://www2.ca.uky.edu/agc/pubs/FCS3/FCS3578/FCS3578.pdf> and <http://www2.ca.uky.edu/agc/pubs/FCS3/FCS3582/FCS3582.pdf> or through the Pendleton County Cooperative Extension Service.

Try these homemade reader requested favorite recipes by the Amish Cook

These are some requested recipes from readers as part of our "summer recipe series." The Amish Cook will return in its regular format later in the month. Enjoy!

An Amish Cook reader in Highland, Indiana requested a recipe for blueberry muffins with a splash of lemon. Try this recipe which comes from an Amish settlement in Maine where blueberries are plentiful during the summer!

- der
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
  - 1/2 teaspoon salt
  - 1 cup softened butter
  - 1 1/2 cups sugar
  - 4 eggs
  - 2 1/2 tablespoons lemon juice
  - 2 tablespoons grated lemon zest
  - 1 teaspoon vanilla
  - 1 cup buttermilk
  - 2 cups blueberries
- Glaze
- 1 1/2 cups powdered sugar
  - 3 tablespoons lemon juice
  - 1 tablespoon lemon zest
- Directions:
- Preheat the oven to 350°F. Lightly greased muffin tins or line tins with cupcake papers.
- In a large mixing bowl, combine the flour, baking powder, baking soda, and salt. Set aside.
- In a medium mixing bowl, cream the butter and sugar until thoroughly blended. Beat in the eggs, one egg at a time. Add lemon juice, lemon zest, and vanilla until smooth in consistency. Beat in flour mixture and buttermilk, alternating dry ingredients with buttermilk, adding about 1/3 each time. The mixture should be smooth and creamy. Fold in the blueberries and mix until the blueberries are even distributed throughout the batter. Pour the batter into the muffin tins, filling the tins about half full. Bake until the muffin tops are golden, 20-25 minutes. Allow to cool about five minutes. In a small mixing bowl, combine the sugar, lemon juice, and lemon zest until a smooth consistency is achieved. Apply to the muffin tops while still warm.

HONEY HAM LOAF

A reader in Kalkaska, Michigan requested a recipe for ham loaf. This is a great Amish recipe from Iowa.

Ingredients:

- 1 pound fresh ground turkey
- 1 pound ground ham
- 1 cup bread crumbs
- 1 egg
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/8 teaspoon pepper
- 3/4 cup milk

Sauce

- 1/2 cup clover honey
- 2/3 cup brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/4 cup vinegar

Directions:

Grind meat. Mix ground meats, bread crumbs, egg, salt, pepper, and milk. Shape into a loaf. Bake at 350 degrees for one hour. For the sauce, mix the brown sugar, dry mustard, water, and vinegar together. Pour sauce over loaf. Bake for one more hour.

HOMEMADE MILK GRAVY

A reader in Oelwein, Iowa requested a recipe for milk gravy, easy and perfect for campfire meals of biscuits and gravy!

Ingredients:

- 1/4 cup pan drippings (bacon drippings or sausage drippings)
- 1/4 cup all-purpose flour
- 2 cups milk or heavy cream, room temperature

Directions:

Remove the bacon or sausage and place on a plate to drain. Using the same frying pan, over medium high heat add flour and stir until brown with a whisk or fork. Slowly add the milk or cream until the gravy is thick and smooth. Season with salt and pepper. Serve over biscuits.

USDA provides 12-week progress update on disaster assistance

Agriculture Secretary Tom Vilsack provided a 12-week progress report on U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) disaster assistance programs today, announcing that USDA has processed 106 thousand payments to farmers in 40 states across the country who suffered livestock and grazing losses between October 2011 and passage of the 2014 Farm Bill.

"Farmers and ranchers who waited two and a half years for a Farm Bill are now getting some relief," said Vilsack. "We met the very ambitious goal to get these programs up and running in just 60 days. Now, thanks to our dedicated staff in offices across the country, we've provided more than 106 thousand payments to farmers and ranchers in 40 states who suffered drought, blizzard, and other weather related losses."

A quick implementation of the disaster assistance programs has been a top priority for USDA. In February, the Farm Service Agency (FSA) announced that enrollment for four disaster assistance programs would begin April 15, 2014, 60 days from the date the programs were reestablished by the 2014 Farm Bill. After the 2008 Farm Bill, it took over one year for the programs to get up and running.

Since then, dedicated full-time FSA staff, as well as temporary employees hired to expedite the application process, have processed over 1.2 billion dollars in payments to qualifying farmers and ranchers. The first payments were sent out to farmers and ranchers within two weeks of enrollment. USDA estimated that roughly 2.5 billion dollars would be provided in disaster relief to cover losses from October 2011 through September 2014. If those estimates prove accurate, it would mean nearly half of all disaster payments have already been provided.

While disaster relief is a critical lifeline that can prevent farmers and ranchers who do not have access to crop insurance from being wiped out by weather-related losses beyond their control, most producers only receive support equal to 60 percent of their actual losses.

USDA disaster programs include: The Livestock Forage Disaster Program (LFP) and the Livestock Indemnity Program (LIP) provides payments for grazing losses due to drought and livestock deaths due to adverse weather.

The Emergency Assistance for Livestock, Honeybees, and Farm-Raised Fish Program (ELAP) provides assistance for livestock, honeybees and farm-raised fish losses due to disease (including cattle tick fever), weather, wildfires and colony collapse disorder, or for losses not covered under other disaster assistance programs established by the 2014 Farm Bill.

The Tree Assistance Program (TAP) provides financial assistance to eligible orchardists and nursery tree growers to replant or rehabilitate trees, bushes and vines that were lost or damaged by natural disasters.
